

The Landslide Is Increasing

(Associated Press Cable to The Star.)

SAN FRANCISCO, November 9.—California has gone for Roosevelt and Fairbanks by over 100,000. Eight Republican congressmen were elected in California and the legislatures of both California and Nevada will choose Republican senators.

ROOSEVELT'S BIG VOTE

NEW YORK, November 9.—Roosevelt has received 325 votes in the electoral college and this figure will probably be increased by 18 from Missouri, though John W. Folk, the Democratic nominee, has been elected Governor of that State. There will be a Republican majority of about 100 in Congress. Roosevelt's plurality in the State of Illinois is 225,000.

JAPANESE SILENCE FORTS.

TOKIO, November 9.—It is reported that the Japanese forces have silenced the Russian forts on the Rihlung and Susang mountains about Port Arthur and the main Japanese forces is now engaged in attacking the Etz forts.

CHANCES FOR CHINESE LABOR

MCCANTS STEWART HAS A TALK WITH CONGRESSMAN TAWNEY ON THE SUBJECT OF CHINESE EXCLUSION—WAS THE AUTHOR OF THE FIRST ADDRESS EVER MADE IN CONGRESS IN FAVOR OF ANNEXATION.

The following was received by the transport Sherman today:

Complying with your request to send you something from this end, I am sure the public will be interested in a talk I had yesterday with Congressman J. A. Tawney, of Minnesota.

Mr. Tawney needs no introduction to Honolulu people. It will be remembered that he visited the islands in 1897 and made a thorough examination of our conditions with the view of determining his policy as to annexation. He returned to Congress and made the first speech of record in favor of annexation. Dingley, author of the present tariff system was then the leader of the House of Representatives. He was "on the fence" in the matter of annexation; but Mr. Tawney's speech won him over. He paid it a high compliment, saying among other things, that it was unanswerable. Thereafter annexation had plain sailing in our national legislature, and soon became an accomplished fact through the treaty signed by the lamented President McKinley.

Throughout these years, Mr. Tawney has kept in close touch with Hawaii and has helped her mightily in Congress. He is on the Committee on Insular Affairs, and on the committee on Ways and Means, two committees having in charge matters of vital interest, either directly or indirectly, to our Territory. Mr. Tawney is now directing the work of the speakers' bureau of the National Republican Committee. He is, therefore, not only a friend of Hawaii, but a center of national influence.

Now I have written these things to refresh the minds of Honolulu people, to emphasize them to our citizens generally, and to accentuate the fact that what Mr. Tawney says should carry great weight, because they are the utterances of one of our friends.

Yesterday, I drew up to his desk at headquarters and said "Let me talk to you as a Congressman, for a moment, Mr. Tawney."

"Fire away," came the response in his quick business-like way.

"What are the chances of our people getting, under special legislation, a reasonable number of Chinese laborers for plantation work exclusively," I asked.

Shaking his head, with an expression of deep seriousness, he replied: "None at all. We could not make such special provision for Hawaii without doing the same thing for our Insular possessions, Porto Rico, and the Philip-

The New Vice President

Senator Fairbanks of Indiana has been elected vice-president of the United States and will take office when President Roosevelt begins his second term. Fairbanks' candidacy is regarded as responsible in part for the big majority rolled up in Indiana. He has been a member of the Senate for many years.

SENATOR FAIRBANKS

BRITT ADMITS THE FOUL

SUDDENLY LOST FIGHT HE WAS WINNING—HAD BEATEN HIS OPPONENT TO STATE OF GREAT WEAKNESS WHEN HE LOST HIS HEAD AND STRUCK GANS WHILE THE LATTER WAS ON HIS KNEES.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 1.—After four rounds and a half of the greatest fighting ever seen in a California ring, Jimmie Britt last night lost a decision to Joe Gans. Gans was given the decision because Britt fouled him, not once or twice, but several times; and when Referee Eddie Graney separated the men and pointed to Gans as the victor he did the only thing possible to be done under the circumstances.

In the second round of the fight, at a time when honors were even, Britt fouled his opponent by hitting him fairly in the groin. Graney believed the blow was unintentional, as did almost every one else who saw it delivered, and motioned for the fighters to go on, as Gans was not injured.

In the fourth round Gans went to his knees four times, and the second time he fell Britt fouled him again, hitting him on the head with his right. At the close of this round Graney warned Britt, as he had done in the second round, that he must be careful. Again, just as the gong rang for the opening of the fifth round, Graney cautioned Britt, telling him plainly that he must stop fouling and fight properly.

About a minute of the fifth round had passed when Britt landed a right to his opponent's body that staggered the latter, and Gans fell to his knees. The boys had been close together, indulging in desperate fighting, and Britt never stopped swinging his arms. Once, twice, three times he put right and left to the negro's head, and then, appreciating that the fouls could not possibly be accidental, Graney stepped between the two and gave Gans the decision.

Britt by his fighting absolutely astounded his most ardent admirers and he showed himself possessed of wonderful speed and magnificent strength. The Jimmie Britt of last night was 50 per cent stronger and quicker than the Jimmie Britt who fought Young Corbett a year ago. In fact, Jimmie Britt of last night must be acknowledged as a wonderful fighting machine, more wonderful than even his closest friends have thought him to be.

After the fight Britt said: "I admit I fouled him, but I couldn't help it. He was trying to slip to the floor all the time, and I couldn't tell when I started a blow whether it was going to strike when he was on his knees or on his feet. In the clinches he would grab me around the waist and try to slip to the floor without me putting a glove on him, and when I hit out to straighten him up they said I fouled him. I couldn't get a chance to land a punch that would finish him, although I knew I had him weak. Graney was not to blame."

FORECLOSURE ON ORPHEUM

Suit for foreclosure of mortgage was filed this morning in the Circuit Court by Smith & Lewis, as attorneys for George Tourny against the Orpheum Company, Limited, and James F. Morgan was appointed receiver by Judge Robinson under bonds of $2000.

According to the papers filed, action was taken under a mortgage for $32,500 made on February 4, 1902, to secure a note for the same amount which was signed by H. M. von Holt as secretary and John F. Colburn as treasurer. The note bore interest at the rate of 7 per cent, the mortgage being made to the German Savings and Loan Society, Limited, of San Francisco.

The plaintiff Tourny is now the owner of the note and the mortgage which covers the whole Orpheum property on Fort street, mauka of Bere-tania.

It is claimed that the Orpheum Company failed to pay the interests due on February 4, 1903, and has also failed to pay any interest since, that there has been default in the payment of taxes to the extent of $550.50 and of insurance to the extent of $173.

The bond given by James F. Morgan as receiver was filed at noon today. Smith & Lewis are attorneys for the plaintiff.

HOW KUHIO INCREASED HIS LEAD

Comparison of this year's vote on Oahu with that of two years ago shows that Kuhio polled slightly more than then, and that his two opponents combined secured a few more votes than did Wilcox. The figures are quite close. Kuhio's vote this time was 2,506 and two years ago having been 2,354. The combined vote of the Home Rulers and Democracy this time is less than it was in the first Territorial campaign. The following table shows the figures for the three elections which have been held:

Kinney Makes a Statement

THE DEMOCRATIC CHAIRMAN CHARGES WHOLESOME INTIMIDATION OF VOTERS IN YESTERDAY'S ELECTION—SAYS THE FAILURE TO TEAR THE NUMBERS OFF THE BALLOTS DESTROYED THE SECRECY OF THE BALLOTS.

Evidently the Democrats have decided to make no further contest in the elections of yesterday on this island and they have decided to bow to accept the situation without contest. Several of the candidates and leaders of the party gathered today at the office of W. A. Kinney, the chairman of the Democratic Central Committee. At that meeting Chairman Kinney gave his opinion that it would be better to let matters go no further and announced that he would place the party on record in the following statement. The statement was read to those present, who approved of it, and of Kinney's course. The statement follows:

"Speaking personally what I have to say is this. The minute the natives employed upon the roads and public improvements doubted the secrecy of their ballot, the election became a walkover for the Republicans. These natives were unquestionably warned by their lunas that the election was so arranged that failure to vote the Republican ticket and to vote it straight could be detected against every one of them, and I am afraid it was so and in more ways than one. This coupled with the actual voting of numbered ballots whereby the vote of every single man could be identified, and which took place largely in those precincts where these laborers were located, settled the matter if anything else was needed. Large numbers of these men were members of Democratic Clubs in good standing, and who had never indicated any desire or intention of leaving the party or of voting any other ticket. In many places these laborers were lined up at the polls before the booths were opened, and cast these numbered ballots. The crowning feature of this kind of work on the part of the Republican party developed last night when against the urgent protests of the Democrats, the inspectors of election detached the numbered stub from each of these illegal ballots in the ballot boxes thereby destroying all means of identifying the legal from the illegal ballots. Close on to a thousand of these illegal ballots must have been cast.

"It is claimed that the numbered stubs were removed so as to prevent identifying the man who cast the ballot, but the unanimous refusal of the

REPUBLICANS NOT WORRYING

ATTORNEY GENERAL ANDREWS DOES NOT THINK THE DEMOCRATIC CHARGES OF FRAUD IN YESTERDAY'S ELECTION WORTH SERIOUS CONSIDERATION—CONTESTING NUMBERED BALLOTS MIGHT SERVE ONLY TO DISFRANCHISE SOME WHO VOTED.

The least worried man in the Territory of Hawaii this morning was Attorney General Lorrin Andrews who put up such a fine fight as the leader of the Republican party in the Fourth. "There isn't much to say now that it is all over," he remarked this morning "the boys in the Fourth put up just the fight that I was sure that they would put up and the result is plain to be seen. Naturally I am delighted not only with the result here but also on the mainland though I cannot say that I am in any measure surprised. "The protests and injunctions and all the other matters which our friends did us the honor of preparing for us are not worrying me in the least. It would not affect the situation in the slightest even if they made good on all of them. They would simply succeed in disfranchising a number of voters, that's all."
